

Santa Claus
The North Pole

Merry Christmas!

I was just double-checking my list, and sure enough, your name is on it! You must have been very good this year.

My sleigh is almost all packed and ready to go. I have a lot of presents to deliver on Christmas Eve, and Rudolph and the other reindeer have been practicing their skills so we can land on your roof. Oh, and don't worry that you don't have a chimney. I have my ways!

Remember, though, that I can't visit houses where kids are still awake, so be sure to go to bed early on Christmas Eve and get plenty of sleep, and when you wake up your stocking will be stuffed full and your presents will be under the tree.

You are very special to me, and to your family. I'm sure you will have a great Christmas.

Your Friend,

Santa
